

God's wisdom is pure, peaceful, gentle, and full of kindness. We must be peaceful people as we plant the seeds of God's kingdom, and peacemakers as we gather the fruit.

Follow the way of peace by planting the seed of God's kingdom in each heart. Plant a seed (draw a dot) in every heart, passing through each one only once as you go through the maze.

Mark 9:30-37

September 22, 2024

To learn what Jesus said, color the shapes below with only three corners (triangles).

After Jesu__ told them that he was going to be killed, his friends had an argument about which one of them was the greatest; not a nice thing to do after som__one tells you they're going to die. Maybe they were trying to decide who would be the new leade__.

Jesus was not happy with the way they were acting. He spotted a child, stood him up where they could all see him and said, "Do you really want to be great? To be leaders? Then ser__e others and pay __ttention to children. If you love them the way you should you'll be lovi__g me too. This is how to be truly grea__ in the only way that matter__."

Fill in the missing letters, above, then put them, in order, in the spaces below.

This word tells us what really great people are.
 Now, see how many other words you can make from the letters in this word.
 Write them below.

Er and Est

The missing words are in the rock.

I am smart and clever,
 Creative, good looking, too;
 I run fast and I am funny;
 Do you know me? I am you.
 Oh, you think because you're
 Not the est (you know, smartest)
 Your abilities are _____.
 Since you cannot be the best,
 Well, you're no good at all . . .
 Right? Wrong!
 Just because you're not strongest
 Does not mean you're not _____.

If you try to be a servant,
 One who's helpful, cheerful, kind,
 You'll get er and er and er and er,
 Until one day you _____
 You no longer care if you're the est;
 For love has filled the _____
 Between what you are
 And wish you were,
 With the miracle of grace.
