

Listen very carefully,
 For now I'm going to (doll, tell, send),
 What Jesus gave the lady with whom
 He spoke beside the (well, ring, dog);
 What came flowing from the rock
 That God told Moses to (sit, fall, hit),
 And fills my tub at bathtime,
 So I can wash in it . . .
 You can drink it, splash it, spray it,
 Or just sit and watch it flow;
 What is this thing I like so much?
 Well, I'm pretty sure you (go, slow, know)!

Do you know what I love?
 I'll bet you love it, too.
 I'm sure that you can guess it,
 You only need a (shoe, dog, clue).

It lives inside the sea,
 And falls down when it rains;
 It flows along in rivers,
 And it runs down (feet, books, drains.)

God's people all were angry,
When they didn't have a (drop, door, mom),
So God told his servant Moses
How to get it from a (cat, sock, rock).

Jesus told a lady that
He wanted her to (stop, sun, try),
The kind of it that comes from God,
So she never would run (eat, die, dry).

Well, my riddle's almost over,
Have you guessed the answer (yet, in, from)?
Do you know the thing I really love,
Or are you still all (red, mad, wet)?
