The sun is a torch that
Lights up the _____;
The moon gleams softly
When the sun's gone _____;
There are lights that guide
The ships at sea . . .
If you were a light
What kind would you be?

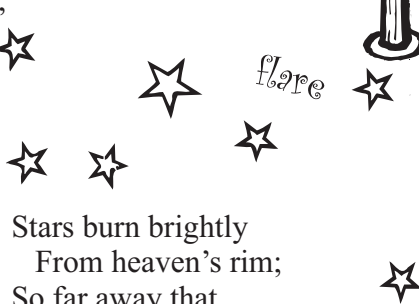

There are lamps that light
Every city _____;
Fires burn brightly
And give us _____;
There are cheerful lights
On your Christmas _____;
If you were a light
What kind would you be?

Some lights say "Stop!"
And others say "_____"
Some say "Watch out!"
And some say "No!"
Yes, a light can speak
In it's own _____;
If you were a light
What would you _____?

Stars burn brightly
From heaven's rim;
So far away that
Their light looks dim;
God outshines all
The stars of the night;
Do you know God,
Have you seen his light?

A searchlight, a sunbeam,
A laser, a _____,
A flashlight, a spotlight,
An idea, or a prayer . . .
Love, help, or guidance,
These lights help us _____!
If you were a light
What kind would you _____?

"You are the light of the world."

How many words having to do with light can you find in the light house?

THINKING ABOUT LIGHT

1. Circle the lights that warn us.
2. Put a square around the lights that warm us.
3. Underline the lights that guide us in the dark.
4. Put a check by the lights that shine on dark streets.
5. Put an X by the lights that point something out.
6. Draw a smiling face by the lights that tell us something.
7. Circle the light that keeps us alive on earth.
8. Circle the one who said, "You are the light of the world."

Think carefully about these questions. As a Christian, how might you be able to act like these lights:

1. A warning light:

---

---

---

---

2. A guide in the darkness:

---

---

---

---

3. Points out something:

---

---

---

4. Gives warmth
