Matthew 22:1-14

October 18, 2026

There was once a king who planned a great wedding feast for his son. He told his friends that he would be inviting them all.

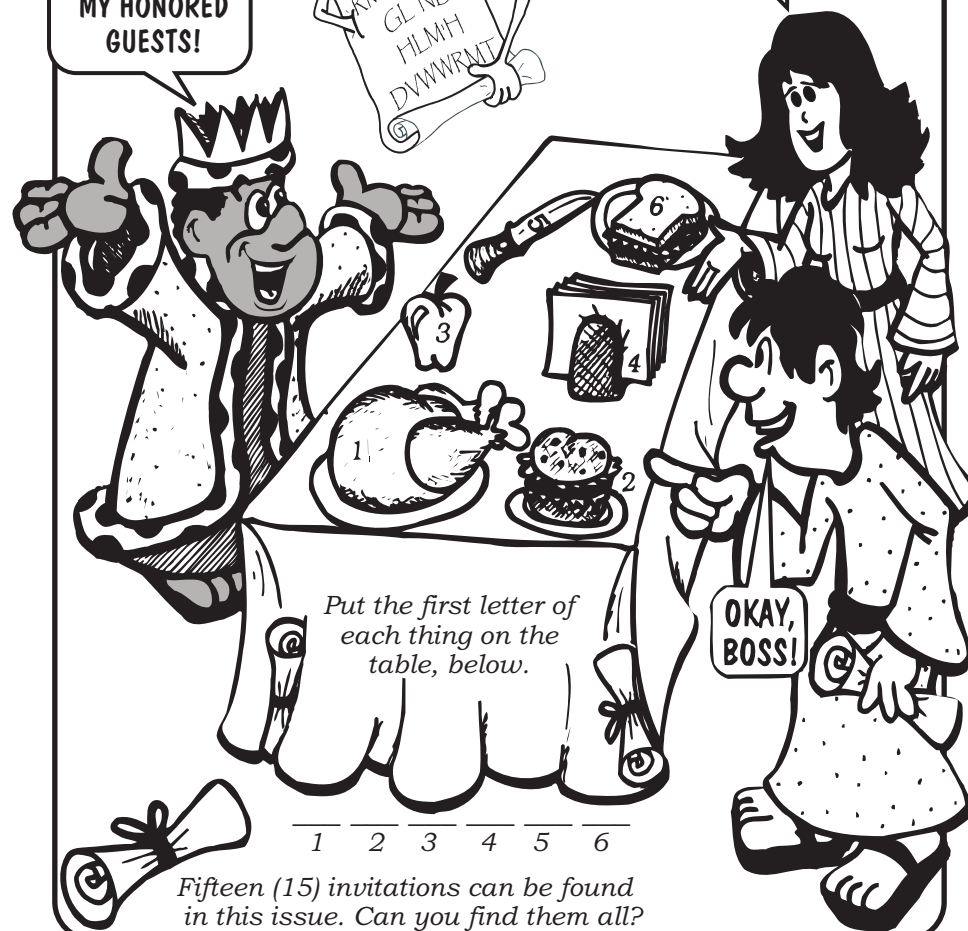

The invitation said:

God has invited
us all to a very special feast. The table is set with
wonderful things:
Joy, peace, love
and strength for life. A celebration
waits for us when we say "yes" to God's offer.
